Supreme Court Affirms Two More St.
Francois County Cases—Reverses and Remands One

Last Tuesday the Supreme Court affirmed the cases against James Valle and George Gordon and reversed and remanded the case of George F. Wigger.

Valle was convicted of breaking into James W. Covington's store at Flat River and sentenced to seven years in the penitentiary. George Gordon was convicted of perjury in connection with the McCarver case and also given seven years in the penitentiary. Both of these men were convicted under the administration of Prosecuting Attorney Ben H. Marbury.

George F. Wigger, whose case was reversed and remanded, was convicted of arson, charged with having set fire to and burned the saloon of Z. B. Jennings at Esther. He was sentenced to five years in the penitentiary. His conviction was also under Prosecuting Attorney Marbury's administration.

Sheriff Croke received a telegram from the Clerk of the Supreme Court Tuesday morning and immediately started after Valle and Gordon, who were out on bond. He arrested them and now has them in jail awaiting an opportunity to take them to Jefferson City and turn them over to the Warden of the penitentiary.

If taken as directed you may have entire confidence in their effectiveness, as well as in the fact that they will leave no disagreeable after-effects.

They contain no morphine, opium, chloral, cocaine or other dangerous drugs.

"For a long time I have suffered greatly with spells of backache, that seem almost more than I can endure. These attacks come on every month, and last two or three days. I have never been able to get anything that would give me much relief until I began the use of Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills, and they always relieve me in a short time. My sister, who suffers the same way, has used them with the same results." MRS. PARK.
